In accordance with Executive Order 41 (EO 41) amended July 22, 2008, smoking is banned in all Central VA Community College (CVCC) facilities, including temporary enclosed structures, trailers, covered walkways, as well as structures placed by contractors or vendors. Smoking is permitted outdoors in designated areas that are further than 25 feet from an entrance or exit. Smokers should use the ash urns provided to dispose of smoking material waste and should not litter. Employee violations will result in disciplinary action and shall be considered in the employee performance evaluation.
